GC Police Clear Four House Burglaries With Arrests Of Boys 16, 18

Area police were faced with a wide variety of thefts over the weekend, including a $137 house burglary in Madison, a strong-arm robbery in the county outside Granite City, a belated report of a $300 "pigeon drop" confidence game staged in Madison as well as thefts of two autos, a window air-conditioning unit, display flags and auto parts.

On the credit side, Granite City police cleared four house burglaries which had occurred since late in April, and an 18-year-old youth, who admitted the house entries, was charged with burglary and larceny.

A $137 burglary, which occurred between 12:30 and 9 a.m. Saturday, was reported to Madison police by Harry Hoekstra, 46, of 1312 (near) State street.

A sneak thief entered the house by cutting a window screen on the northeast side and removing the screen. Inside, the burglar grabbed Hoekstra's trousers from a kitchen chair and fled.

The trousers contained his wallet with the $137 in currency. Police found the trousers, minus the wallet, in the Madison County yard, 13th and State streets.

$300 'Pigeon Drop'

The victim of the old "pigeon drop" game was nearly a month before reporting his $300 loss to Madison police Saturday morning. The victim, Ruben Hill, 69, of 901 Biessel street, told police the incident occurred about 3 p.m. on Friday, June 16 in the 400 block of Madison avenue.

Relating the details, Hill said he had paid a power bill and was leaving the office when he was "sneaky-looking" man approached him and began a conversation saying he had seen a woman pick up an envelope.

The stranger called to the woman and she crossed the street to join them. The woman explained a man leaving the Madison bank had dropped the envelope and that it contained $300. Hill said he was unable to tell how much money was in the envelope which the woman had opened.

"She told me she didn't know what to do with the money and there were three of us who knew about it. She suggested calling a Miss Peterson, for whom she had worked 12 years, to get advice. She left to make a phone call and came back and said Miss Peterson had told her to bring her the envelope and the two men with her, and that the two men would not $500 each to show they were in good faith, their money would be doubled."

Budget Battle Looms For GC Council Tonight

Recording Covers Cause Confusion

Record covers may be discussed by the new phonograph record department at the Granite City public library, according to Mrs. Joyce Walters, who is in charge of the section.

Last Thursday, a housewife returned two jackets only to discover she had left the records on the hi-fi set at home.

A few days earlier, a man, described as a sedate and conservative, checked out an album of Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto No. 1, which was returned only to find Benny Goodman jazz records inside.

1st Unveiling: Expected To Be Up $300,000 With No Salary Boosts

Granite City's new city budget is to be made public for the first time at this evening's meeting, and an effort might be made for immediate adoption of the appropriation which reportedly is about $300,000 over last year's $1,458,447 budget.

However, opposition is expected from a number of aldermen to several new items in the proposed budget — $50,000 as partial payment for a new city garage, $6000 for hiring a second attorney, an unknown figure for options for two fire station locations, $20,000 for public library to buy a vacant church building. Several salaries are expected to come out of the budget.

The budget is late in being brought before the council. Last year, it was adopted on June 27, but there were no wage negotiations, as city employees were given $25 monthly increases automatically under a two-year agreement.

Negotiations got off to a slow start this year as the council organized with a completely revamped system of committees, and was not known even last week that the Personnel committee instead of the Finance committee was to work with the mayor in the wage talks. A session was held Saturday, and a session of the city employees' union is expected to be held tonight.

Mayor Re-enters Hospital

Mayor Davis is not expected to be present tonight. He suffered another kidney stone attack Saturday night and re-entered St. Louis Hospital, St. Louis, yesterday afternoon on his physician's orders.

The mayor told the Press-Record Saturday morning prior to a negotiating session with the city employees' union. He said the new budget did not contain provisions for general wage increases. At that time, he hoped the council would accept his recommendation.

"He pointed out the city is owed a $300,000 cut in revenue next year because of a recent state Supreme Court ruling that the Judge-Butler Act, which was passed in 1946, would still be applicable."

If the ruling applies to cities and villages, and it is questionable that the Supreme Court decision is applicable to cities, Granite City's general property tax rate could be cut next year from the 26.6-cent per $100 assessed value to 25.35 cents, and the cuts also would apply to the special tax rates for garbage collection, fire protection and for road and bridge repairs.

Costly Sewer Repairs

Mayor Davis also pointed out that most of the city's sales tax revenue would be wiped out for sewer repairs projects — $100,000 for the 20th street line repair, and thousands of dollars for breaks which recently occurred at two places along Terrace lane and on an easement in a backyard along Aubrey avenue.

The election of officers held the agenda for Wednesday night's meeting of the Tri-City Trades & Labor Council.

Opposition for several of the officers arose at the nominating meeting June 21. Edwin Reiske, who is completing his second one-year term and who has been president since the AFL-CIO unions formed the joint council here, will be opposed by Ernest Rich, an operating engineer. Reiske is a member of the machinist union.

Incumbent Everett Morien of Steelworkers Local 68 is opposed by Granite City Patrolman Everett Kelly, president of the police officers' local, for the council's vice-president post.

Running unopposed are Mrs. Hilda Buran of the Cooks & Stewards union, for financial secretary; Ted Moran of Steelworkers Local 68, incumbent, for treasurer; Albert Wilson of the Painters' Union, incumbent, for guard; and Lennie Crockrell of the Steelworkers, incumbent, for guide.

A. O. Smith Sued For $600,000 Damages

An Alton man and his wife are co-plaintiffs in a $600,000 suit against the A. O. Smith Corp. for injuries allegedly suffered by the man last Sept. 1.

The complaint states that Clarence A. Faughn, 57, an employee of Rite Electric Co., was working at the Smith plant when he was pinned against ductwork and a steel pier by an overhead moving crane, resulting in serious and permanent injuries. The Faughns had been pulling an electric cable along a steel beam as part of the railing for the crane's operation, about 40 feet above the ground, the claim filed last week in Edwardsville circuit court asserts.

Maintaining the case was operated without proper care and caution and that no measures to warn the operator of his presence on the beam existed, and considering the extent of his injuries which included a fractured collarbone, pelvis and ribs and injuries to various internal organs, Faughn is asking $500,000 damages.

Verna Faughn seeks $100,000 damages, the claim says, for losing the services of her husband, plus his love, affection, society, companionship and consortium.

"Why is this medicine So Expensive?"
When you think today's "miracle drugs" are expensive, measure the results they give. Measure your savings in hospital bills avoided, costly operations prevented, in time off your job. Measure the health restored, the lives saved. Yes, the miracle drug prescription your doctor orders today costs you more — but it isn't an expense, it's an economy.

Sacred Heart 5, Collinsville 1
Mercer 19, White City 5
Moore Lodge 16, Troy 5

Granite City's Sacred Hearts continued to display their mastery over Collinsville in the southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball league Sunday. The Hearts scored their first win for new Manager Arvel Price, and their second in three games, with the Boosters this season, 5-1, before a partisan crowd at Wilson Park.

GOOD NEWS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

The recent conference about problems of the aging disclosed that it is possible for most older folks to live happier, healthier longer and even be physically active.

"DO NOT LIVE A ROCKING CHAIR LIFE!"
"If you just sit and wait for death, you will not have to wait so long," said one prominent physician. "The results of such inactivity increases atrophy of the mind, which speeds up degenerative diseases."

AVOID EXTREME STRESS

Cut down on excessive physical efforts, but moderate exercise, some work and companionship are all helpful in maintaining good health and vitality.

HEALTH DISEASE IS NOT INEVITABLE
If the aging place themselves under the care of a physician and follow advice about diet, sustaining medicines and vitamins, "they need not be afraid of old age."

WE INVITE SENIOR CITIZEN PATRONAGE
By constantly reading about the newest treatments and needed medicines, we are able to immediately stock needed medicines and vitamins. If any prescriptions must be continuously taken, please inform us so we can co-operate on cost.

Posting its 12th win in a row and remaining unbeaten for the season, Bowland kept its two-game lead in the Tavern Softball League yesterday at Lee Park by dropping Mille & Mickey's, 6-4. The only change in the standings involved Washington Tavern, which moved into a fifth-place tie with Mille & Mickey's, ahead of Club Delmar.

Gus Lingou's four-bagger led the league-leading keglers as Sunny Miloski and Paul Gantz provided the winning battery combination. Delbert Coy had a homer for the losers and Harold and John Sabo were the losing battery.

It was second-place Sportsman's Club's turn to profit from Tubby's eighth straight forfeit. Fifth place Polish Hall dealt Club Delmar a 10-2 shellacking as Dude Friend paced the winners with a three-for-four performance.

The Girls' Twilight Softball league all-star squad, managed this year by P. E. "Pop" Meyer of the Venice Kelly Girls, broke a seven-year drouth Saturday night in Collinsville by defeating the Collinsville Rockettes 10-4.

It marked the first time in eight years that an all-star squad selected by league team managers had beaten the club entrenched in first place at the time of the all-star game break. The all-stars started a 3-0 lead. The Rockettes rallied for three runs and a 4-3 lead off Diane Barkley of Belleville's Suburbanettes, and the all-stars came back with a rally of their own to give the third all-star pitcher, Diane Arth of Maryville, the victory.

Miss Arth needed ninth inning help from Sandy Klean of Kelly's, who got three straight batters in a bases-loaded situation. Also appearing in the all-star lineup were Judy Durno and Judy Schaefer of Kelly's.

The Venice Club was rained out of a scheduled exhibition encounter with Livingston last Thursday night at Lee Park, and will travel to Belleville Wednesday, where it plays the Suburbanettes in a Twilight league game. In second place, Kelly's trails Collinsville by 2½ games.

Building Materials

Building materials bought by the contractors for use in real estate construction under contract for others are now subject to the retailer's occupation tax. The new regulation went into effect yesterday.

Sales of building materials to real estate developers and speculative builders had been taxable, however, when personal property is bought and sold without construction contractor connection, and when the buyer does not know how it will be sold.

Yesterday's deadline on the new regulation does not apply to material for use in a prior contract which does not provide for the burden of the tax to be shifted by the contractor, nor to material to be used under a prior contract between owner and contractor in which the tax would not have been paid by either.

Numbers of face flies are rapidly increasing in Madison county, especially in dairy cattle herds. About 50 farmers have already reported the presence of this new pest and have started treating their cattle to control the flies.

Face flies have completed at least one generation this year; eggs are now being laid for another generation within 28 days of slaughter.

A survey of milking practices will be made on 20 Madison county dairy farms during this week by Jack Albright and Leo Fryman of the dairy science department of the University of Illinois. One of the men will be at each farm during a morning or evening milking to study the procedures and equipment. The chief purpose of the survey is to get information on milking methods under average dairy farm conditions as a basis for developing procedures to save time and labor.

The farm visited will be representative of dairy farms of the county, with different types of milking machines and installations. Surveys are being made in two other Illinois counties in the northern and central areas.

Speaking of milking practices, a regular maintenance program of checking and cleaning pulsators, petcocks, vacuum regulators and other equipment. Here are a few examples of the value of keeping animals cool.

Hairston Says NAACP Convention Successful

The convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People which closed in Washington, D. C., yesterday was successful in gaining support for possible civil rights legislation in the 1962 session, Hugh Hairston, member of the Tri-Cities Chapter, told the Press-Record today.

Hairston of Venice, who is former president of the local group, led a three-man committee in a conference with Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis). Others of the 1200 member national delegation met with congressmen and senators and with President Kennedy to discuss the civil rights issues.

Hairston said Price told the committee he would support legislation, assuring them he would "do his part."

Also chairman of the Illinois Fighting Fund for Freedoms committee, Hairston said the convention sought to bring about more job opportunities and to establish segregation in the nation's schools.

He said southern states representatives were cool to the proposals and many refused to meet with NAACP committees.

In other action, Hairston said the delegation unanimously voted to morally and financially back the "Freedom Riders" and to support other similar efforts.

Thousands Seek Governor's Signature On Lake Park Bill

Individuals and organizations, representing thousands of persons in Madison and St. Clair counties, are writing or telegraphing Gov. Kerner at Springfield, urging him to sign "House Bill 1153," which would transform Horseshoe Lake from a mosquito haven to a playground for over half a million people.

The bill was passed by the legislature on its final day of 1961 session—June 15—and is believed to have reached the governor's desk this week.

If signed, it would create the largest state park in Illinois—773 acres—at a cost of $3½ million. The lake itself is one of the largest, if not the largest, natural body of water in the state.

"The significance of a park at Horseshoe Lake can hardly be imagined," Henry D. Karand, Jeff, chairman of the state study commission on the project, said.

"The need for park and recreational facilities parallels the need for adequate schools, but we are less aware of the parks," he said.

Confident Kerner Will Sign

The chairman of the board of the Trust & Savings and American National Banks said he was confident the governor would sign the bill.

Karand, who has been concerned with development of the lake since the 1930's, emphasized that Illinois as a whole has about 50% less park and recreational area than surrounding states such as Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri, even though Illinois has a larger population.

Quoting 1960 population figures of 24,680 for Madison county and 262,509 for St. Clair county, he noted the constant growth in the area without concomitant growth in recreational space.

The appropriated funds would purchase land in and around the present lake area and also pay for dredging the lake to an eight-foot depth, the depth suggested by the Illinois Department of Conservation.

It would also finance stocking of fish, building of recreation facilities, boat docks, picnic grounds and facilities for picnics and water skiing.

A breakdown of the $3,504,350 appropriation shows $1,392,750 for the acquisition of land, $1,589,600 for dredging and $519,000 for development.

Thousands Seek Governor's Signature On Lake Park Bill

POSTED AREAS of Horseshoe Lake are constant reminders that most of the lake is private property and the public is not welcome. More recently, speedboats have been plying the waters and fishermen are constantly along the banks—where permitted.

For development of the recreation of the old Horseshoe Lake, St. Louis trolley line. Later, in the 1930's the lake was referred to as a "mecca" for fishermen and duck hunters. In the 1930's the state conservation department discovered that the area was the point of convergence of two of the three major highways of the Canadian Goose.

Popular In 1930's

In the 1930's the lake was referred to as a "mecca" for fishermen and duck hunters. In the 1930's the state conservation department discovered that the area was the point of convergence of two of the three major highways of the Canadian Goose.

Many Years Disuse

For many years the lake suffered from disuse. Low water stages brought on mosquitoes, and soon many parts were being used as a refuse dumping ground.

The lake bed several times has gone completely dry.

More recently, the runoff from tributaries into the lake has increased, rainfall has been more abundant and the water stage has been close to normal. With dredging and development under the present plan, the level can be kept up to eight feet.

Dredging and Development

The present lake and area around it has had a colorful and varied history. At the beginning of the century the spot was regarded as one of the prime attractions in the area.

Farms thrived on the rich land. Hotels spotted the lakeside. Launches and hundreds of small boats were rented to people who have today become Sunday drivers or river boaters. At one time the lake was the eastern terminus of the trolley line.

Bridge officials said the damage will not delay this afternoon's scheduled opening of toll booths at the Venice exit approach. Repairs will be made as quickly as possible, they said.

PRECIPITATION

Measured by the average annual precipitation in the form of rain and snow over the United States, the total amount of water in constant circulation is about 430 billion gallons a day.

Madison Alley Repairs
Will Begin On Tuesday

Madison Supt. of Streets Stanley Lucas Jr. is seeking the cooperation of Madison residents this week as the city prepares to resurface all alleys within the city limits.

"We are asking that residents remove trash barrels from the alleys and in general avoid littering them while the work is in progress," he said.

City employees will begin spreading oil and chips on Tuesday, weather permitting, and the project should be completed within four days, Lucas added.

While attempting to take my son to the doctor in St. Louis recently, I was delayed by two trains at the Venice crossing.

One train took a full ten minutes to pass. As soon as it had passed, another train that was sitting idle on the crossing was allowed to pass. This train took a full 15 min. Can you tell me why the railroad is allowed to inconvenience a citizen for such a long time. Cars were lined up back to the viaduct. You can bet it will be a long time before I take the McKinley Bridge again.

I would also like to comment on flouride in the water. When a city votes on recommending a measure to be put into effect, why don't our city officials abide by the vote.

I went to the highest authority on children's dental care. I've read numerous articles, etc., on the good effects it has on children's teeth, and that it will be harmful if correctly administered. For the sake of our children, please put flouride in our water.

Four house burglaries, occurring in Granite City since last April, were cleared last week with the arrest of two youths, 18 and 16 years of age, on Thursday night.

Thirteen nights later he entered a residence at 2625 Iowa street through an unlocked rear door and took valuable papers, which were recovered Friday from a hiding place near the Kate street post office building.

Last Tuesday night, the boy said, he entered a home at 2717 Marshall avenue, taking a box containing papers and miscellaneous items including a ring he was wearing when taken into custody. The box was hidden in a garage in the 2800 block of Buxton avenue, and was found by the householder who notified police.

In his statement, the youth admitted to robbing a man on the 3000 block of Washington avenue and the 1500 block of Garfield avenue, abducting both in the 2800 block of Warren avenue. Scant Hope For Adequate Regional Airport System Without Unified Approach

There are probably at least a half dozen different groups, official and quasi-official, on both sides of the Mississippi river that are seriously concerned with the problem of developing adequate airfields for this metropolitan area. In addition, there are many other groups interested in flying, commercial as well as private.

It seems to us that any logical solution to airport needs, now and for the next quarter century, can come only from a coordinated, unified approach. Such an approach is especially desirable since the region to be served is large—and growing—and lies in two states. Also, the problem is further complicated by the general recognition that any major airport must be located in Illinois, even though most of its business probably would come from Missouri, at least initially.

If the agencies and organizations already committed to unilateral airport studies could carry on their activities through a single, all-inclusive legal entity, there could be current and future planning, along with immediate operational activities on the scale necessary to give the whole region adequate air service. This should make for greater efficiency, greater economy, and better service.

Individual airport efforts by cities, counties or districts that disregard regional economics and correlation of sites and facilities can only result in "too little, too late."

Voters' League Draws 43 Interested Women

One of the major requirements toward setting up a Granite City League of Women Voters has been met in the two preliminary meetings held in June and July when 43 women voiced interest in the organization.

Before a local group can be chartered as a provisional league, 35 members are needed. Mrs. Emil Senef, temporary chairman, said she believed enough of the women have expressed interest in the group will continue and join if a provisional league is set up.

At the next meeting, on August 14, at the YMCA, two state league officials will address the local group. They are Mrs. Barbara Cable of Chicago, executive secretary of the Illinois League,

Three-Year College Program Would Reduce Costs For All

Consolidating the traditional four years of college education into three is worth considering, if for no other reason than that the overall cost would be reduced for students, parents and the universities. But there are so many other related benefits that it is surprising the idea is not further advanced than the present nationwide discussion.

At the outset, it can be said that there are drawbacks. There would be less time for professors' research work, vacations and advanced study, though we feel sure some satisfactory arrangement could be devised to meet these needs. Students would have less summer leisure time and less chance to earn part of their living expenses. However, with fewer years required, the total cost would be less and could be met more easily with loans; repayment would be simpler with a full extra year's earning power.

Proposals vary, but most involve three 11-month years replacing the present four nine-month terms. The thinking is that by reducing mid-term holidays, such as the long Easter vacation, only minor condensing of lecture periods would be necessary.

Advocates include Oliver C. Carmichael, member of the Commission on Goals for Higher Education in the South, who points to growing costs and enrollment and the present less-than-optimistic use of buildings and equipment. He says the change would help attain stronger public support of higher education.

Dr. Grayson Kirk, president of Columbia University, comments that "four years in some adolescent playpens that are called centers of learning may be a pleasant interlude for young people, but it is a luxury which they, their parents, the colleges and the country can no longer afford." Raymond Moley, writer, says colleges are "imprisoned" in a four-year college tradition dating back to medieval times when Oxford and Cambridge were created. With enrollment likely to rise over 100% to 7,000,000 by 1970, he says inefficient utilization of college plants—only an estimated 46% time usage at present—is "deplorable."

With such educators as Dr. Kirk taking a favorable stand, we wonder how soon the general public, which also has much at stake, will begin making its views known on the subject of three-year college education.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

By REV. C. M. O'QUIN
Pastor, Trinity Tabernacle

"Do all things without murmurings and disputings; that ye may be blameless and harmless, the son of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation among whom ye shine as lights in the world; holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain." Phil. 2: 14-16. King James Translation.

The writer actually says here "disciplined" Christians are God's stars in this age of darkness. What a remarkable arrangement! Scripturally, the stars, as His night lights must be faultless and unblemished.

God, are imperfect in the sight of God. Job 25: 5 "Ye, the stars are not pure in His sight." Yet, as an object lesson for our encouragement, the "Father of Lights" has appointed the faulty "stars for a light by night." Jer. 31: 35. When once the eyes are prepared to see it, the Bible is supercharged from end to end with the challenge of "My human best filled with the Spirit." Each human soul has a shortage that must be supplied by the Spirit. Note how mightily this concept reappears in this and countless other texts of the Bible.

We are to be God's stars in a dark age. But we are to radiate a reflected light, "Eldering forth the word of truth." Of course, our human best has something to do with the power to reflect. One can't glow if he is grouchy, gloomy or sour. Nor can he flame stars in this age of darkness if filthy in any manner. The children whom God honors as His night lights must be faultless and unblemished.

Venice City Budget Shows Minor Changes

A breakdown of the $365,736 city budget adopted recently by the Venice city council shows only minor changes as the appropriation is up by a slight $1840. There were no pay boosts for city employees, although some changes were made for pay of elected officers prior to last April's election. A legal budget police appears elsewhere in this issue.

A noted jump in funds of $23,739 for the newly organized fire department was offset by a drop of $23,175 in library appropriations.

First change in department funds is seen in the streets and alleys request of $38,363 for the coming year. This is a $5070 increase over last year's budget. The superintendent's salary remains at $6300, but labor cost is up to $38,363 and the purchase of two new dump trucks at a cost of $7000. The labor increase is $4820 over a year ago and the council members pointed out that last year's budget appropriated $4000 for a dump truck that was never bought.

Other increases in the streets and alleys figure are an $800 jump for motor repairs to equipment and a $50 increase in material for repairs. The department anticipates no expense for oil and chips for streets or the purchase of a new pickup truck. The former was allocated $1000 last year and the latter $2000.

Police department salaries are down $7109 and the total department's request, including supplies and expenses, is down $19,462. One probationary patrolman and one sergeant's post have been dropped from the salary list while one patrolman was added to the force and an assistant chief of police slot took the place of the captain's position. Three positions were dropped, one added and a post's title changed. The new assistant chief of police draws $400 more than the captain rank entitled.

No new purchase of equipment or police cars is expected for the coming year, thus the decided drop in supplies and expense for 1960-61.

A $10,000 increase in fees and salaries of city officials was reported but these raises were recorded by the city's servants prior to the April election. Mayor John E. Lee is drawing $2400 more this year than last year. William M. Ehrenholt, city clerk, was given an $1800 raise and the city treasurer is making $2400 this year, which is a $1300 pay boost. The eight city aldermen divide a $1000 increase in appropriations.

The department of law figure is down $75 due to no anticipated extra legal service and expense. City insurance is up $110 with increases in building and policeman liability figures. Printing is down $250 because the police department budget called for $500 for such and that department's printing expenses are usually included with the other city offices.

Sanitation, Health, Sanitary and health appropriations are down $2523 because sewer construction of the dog pound is off this year's request. Sewer replacement and repairs $600 has saved the city $150 over the $750 that was allocated last year to fans, shades and furniture.

The auditing of books and records is up $200 to a cost of $600. Light and lighting's $4000 is up $1000. Sidewalk repairs and reconstruction is still the same $5000 figure. Fire hydrant rentals are down $480. Election expenditures are down $1810 but the police pension fund is up $11,988.

The fire department appropriations are up $32,749 because of the department's reorganization and the purchase of over $21,000 worth of equipment including a new fire truck and hose. Garbage collection funds are down $1050 because no equipment replacement is expected. No construction of additional storage space or purchase of furniture and fixtures has resulted in the $32,175 drop in library funds. The city also saved $10,150 this year because no payment of principal or interest on library bonds is due.

The Illinois municipal retirement fund allocations are up $700 this coming year over last year's $7300 figure. Civil defense is once again allotted $1000 and the contingent fund $2500.

Thus the city budget is only up $1840 over last year's of $363,896.

Denies Epping Petition For Executive Clemency

(Special from Springfield) A petition for executive clemency filed in Springfield last month by Edward A. Epping, former Granite City man now serving a term in Menard Penitentiary for his part in the Grville Hodges scandal, has been denied by the Illinois State Board of Pardons and Paroles. It was announced Friday.

Epping was sentenced in 1956 to four to five years, and in March 1958 was given a one-to-10-year term on four additional charges. He filed the petition on grounds that he should be released upon finishing the first sentence, because the second was decreed to run concurrently.

Half of Uniwah Scouts Day Attend Camp Sunnen

Dr. John DiGiacomo, organization and extension chairman, reported that membership is up 5% over last year in the district and Activities Chairman Leo Kallips reported on participation in Camp Sunnen training sessions. District Chairman Gerald Walters gave a report on the recent camp visitation and health and safety inspection.

$64,547 Tax Levy Adopted For Venice Park

A $64,547 tax levy for the Venice park district during the 1961-62 fiscal year was adopted last week by the board. The levy is $2767 higher than the previous year's allocation.

Amount listed for the general fund is $44,797, up $3017 from the 1960-61 fiscal year, and $19,750 is earmarked for the recreation fund.

Salary hikes and increases in laborer wages, along with park construction costs, accounted for the levy increase, although the amounts listed for park grounds, water system construction and vehicle purchase were trimmed.

A $1200 salary boost to $3000 for the park superintendent was listed, along with a $800 increase for the secretary to $1800, and $800 more a year for the treasurer, who is to receive $1200.

In all, administrative funds rose from $4745 to $6845. Park laborer wages rose from $10,350 to $12,300.

Construction costs for basketball courts went up from $2000 to $2850, while resurfacing of tennis courts was $1000, with no comparable figure for the previous year.

A $1000 decrease in water system work, from $2500 to $1500, was approved, along with a reduction in purchase of vehicles, from $4500 to $1500.

Allocation for salaries of park policemen was decreased from $3800 to $3000 and playground equipment purchase was cut to $2000, as compared with $3300 the previous year.

Announcement of the award came from Willard A. Manning, Illinois Selective Service director. The certificate was signed by President Kennedy, Gov. Kerner and Gen. Hershey, U. S. Selective Service director, in addition to Manning.

To hire the services of these men down through the years would have cost the government millions of dollars, Manning said. "Their local communities, as well as the state and the nation, owe them respect and gratitude."

The $368,270 appropriations budget approved by the Madison city council last week is $7859 less than last year's, which allows for increased operating funds for most of the city's major departments.

Amounts spent for sidewalk and minimal shelter construction and purchase of equipment last year which are not offset by major expenditures in the 1961-62 budget account for the savings.

Salary increases for the mayor, aldermen, city clerk and city treasurer provided by the new budget are partially offset by greater amounts from the operation and maintenance fund of the Chain of Rocks Bridge which pay a portion of their salaries.

The complete budget is published as a legal notice elsewhere in this issue. A breakdown of appropriations, compared to last year's figures, is as follows:

Paste, Popsicle Sticks Into Planters At Logan

Fifteen-hundred popsicle sticks were put to new use one last week by the youngsters taking part in the Granite City park district's summer recreation at Logan school annex, 2500 Missouri avenue.

During a special handicraft session they pasted the sticks together to make planters, square-shaped boxes to cover small potted plants so that only the greenery shows.

"The big problem was getting them to make it nice and square," related Mel Smith, handicraft instructor who is also art teacher at Prather junior high school.

Mothers may have been delighted when the youngsters proudly brought their planters home, but only the youngsters realized the true story of the work and sweat that went into their construction.

Paste, as usual, was highly unmanageable, the instructor said, and the users had a natural tendency to use much more than was necessary.

Also, getting the planters square and making them stand that way until the paste dried drove many a boy and girl to the point of exasperation.

"But they enjoyed it very much, in fact they enjoy anything to make," said Elaine Dineff, assistant leader. Forty-five youngsters attended the handicraft session.

Earlier Friday, the children—all in grades two through eight—held a golf tournament. Twelve tin cans were sunk flush into the ground, arranged like a clock face. The shortest number of strokes around was 10.

Next week the program at Logan includes trips to the Moraine Caverns and Grant's Farm, and another handicraft session. The youngsters will bring home plastic lanyards and bracelets.

Other leaders at the playground are Lee Reid and Pat Dineff, baton instructor.

Crash In Calhoun County Involves GC Motorist

A Granite City motorist involved in a minor accident on Route 96 in Calhoun county was charged with driving too fast for conditions, according to a report made Friday to state troopers.
